What is the employment service registration requirement?

The employment service registration requirement is an existing legal requirement for individuals who have applied for Unemployment Insurance benefits. In Illinois, claimants register with the employment service online at www.IllinoisJobLink.com.

How will registration with the employment service help me?

A complete Employment Service registration will help expand job-search resources for you, including free job postings, recruiting, job matches, hiring fairs, workshops, seminars and webinars. It also enables the Department to better track your employment needs and to help identify additional employment services. More information on employment services is available under the www.IllinoisJobLink.com "Resources" tab.

Does the employment service registration requirement apply to me?

If you file a new claim on or after July 17, 2016, and are subject to the registration requirement, Unemployment Insurance benefits will not be paid until your registration with the Illinois Employment Service is complete. If your answers to the questions on your application for Unemployment Insurance benefits indicate you are subject to the registration requirement, you will be prompted to complete your registration by going to www.IllinoisJobLink.com. If your answers indicate you are not subject to the registration requirement, you will not be required to go to www.IllinoisJobLink.com.

Will I receive reminders or notifications if I need to complete the employment service registration?

Yes. Those who file a new claim on or after July 17, 2016, are subject to the registration requirement and do not immediately complete the registration after applying for benefits will receive a notice by mail with instructions on how to complete the registration and the due date by which the registration must be completed.
