SPRINGFIELD – The unemployment rate increased in six metropolitan areas, decreased in five, and was unchanged in three for the year ending April 2023, according to data released today by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) and the Illinois Department of Employment Security (DES). Over-the-year, total nonfarm jobs increased in thirteen metropolitan areas and was unchanged in one.

"Today's data provides further evidence that stable and consistent job growth continues to expand in metro areas and industry sectors throughout the state," said Deputy Governor Andy Manar. "As new jobs are created, new opportunities become available for those looking to reenter the workforce or shift to another career field."

The metro areas which had the largest over-the-year percentage increases in total nonfarm jobs were the Champaign-Urbana MSA (+2.7%, +3,200), the Peoria MSA (+2.4%, +4,100), and the Elgin Metro (+2.4%, +6,200). Total nonfarm jobs in the Chicago Metro Division were up +1.6% or +59,800. The Carbondale-Marion MSA saw no change in total nonfarm jobs. Industries that saw job growth in a majority of metro areas included: Education and Health Services (thirteen areas); Leisure and Hospitality, Other Services and Government (twelve areas each); Manufacturing, Wholesale Trade and Transportation, Warehousing and Utilities (nine areas each); and Mining and Construction (eight areas).

The metro areas with the largest unemployment rate increases were the Lake-Kenosha County IL-WI Metro (± 0.3 point to 4.3%), followed by the Davenport-Moline-Rock Island IA-IL MSA (± 0.2 point to 3.5%), the Kankakee MSA (± 0.2 point to 5.4%) and the Rockford MSA (± 0.2 point to 6.2%). The metro areas with the largest unemployment rate decreases were the Chicago Metro Division (± 0.1 percentage points to 3.2%), a record low unemployment rate for the month of April, followed by the Springfield MSA (± 0.2 point to 3.7%) and the Carbondale-Marion MSA (± 0.2 point to 3.9%). The unemployment rate was unchanged in the Bloomington MSA (3.4%), the Champaign-Urbana MSA (3.6%) and the Peoria MSA ($\pm 0.5\%$).
