In addition to looking for typical employment, consider apprenticeships, internships, and volunteer opportunities. Or if you have an entrepreneurial mindset, consider starting your own business as a way to gain experience.

Use the Illinois Career Information System (CIS) at <https://portal.il.cis360.org> and learn how your interests relate to occupations and careers. Create a 'My Account' to save your searches, then click on the 'Employment' tab for resume and interview hints and tips.
